

Networks Meeting 2018

3 December 2018, RCPCH, London

Information for Sponsors and Exhibitors

The BAPM networks meeting brings together representatives from all of the UK's 23 neonatal networks. Always well attended, this one day meeting attracts senior neonatal staff to share best practice and discuss topical national issues.

"We found our first BAPM show wonderful; we liked that there were plenty of breaks and that delegates were encouraged to come into the hall to mix with exhibitors. "

Sarah Handley, vCreate - BAPM conference exhibitor 2017

Delegate profile

The audience is primarily Clinical Lead Doctors and Nurses, Network Directors and Managers. The meeting is expected to attract 50-60 delegates and speakers.

Why get involved?

- Opportunity to promote your involvement and commitment to perinatal care
- Raise company and brand awareness with a variety of targeted audiences
- Face to face networking with senior decision makers in the sector.

About BAPM

The British Association of Perinatal Medicine (BAPM) is a professional association and registered charity. We improve standards of perinatal care by supporting all those involved in perinatal care to optimise their skills and knowledge, promote high quality, safe and innovative practice, encourage research, and speak out for the needs of babies and their families.
